The ASEAN-Australia Centre 2024-25 Grants Program

Process

The ASEAN-Australia Centre ('the Centre') 2024-25 Grants Program is designed to achieve Australian Government objectives

This grants opportunity contributes to DFAT's Portfolio Budget Statement Outcome 1. DFAT and the Centre works with stakeholders to plan and design the grant program according to the Commonwealth Grants Rules and Guidelines \(CGRGs\)

The grants opportunity opens

We publish the grant guidelines on GrantConnect.

You complete and submit a grant application

You complete the application form and address all of the eligibility and assessment criteria to be considered for a grant.

We assess all grant applications

We assess the applications against eligibility criteria. We assess your eligible application against the assessment criteria including an overall consideration of value with money and compare it to other applications.

We make grant recommendations

We provide advice to the decision maker on the merits of each application.

Grant decisions are made

The decision maker decides which applications are successful.

We notify you of the outcome

We advise you of the outcome of your application. We may not notify unsuccessful applicants until grant agreements have been executed with successful applicants.

We enter into a grant agreement

We will enter into a grant agreement with you if successful. The type of grant agreement is based on the nature of the grant and will be proportional to the risks involved.

You undertake the grant activity as set out in your grant agreement. We (or other entity if applicable) manage the grant by working with you, monitoring your progress and making payments.

Evaluation of the ASEAN-Australia Centre 2024-25 Grants Program

We evaluate your specific grant activity against the ASEAN-Australia Centre 2024-25 Grants Program objectives. We base this on information you provide to us and that we collect from various sources.

Introduction

Thank you for your interest in the ASEAN-Australia Centre ('the Centre's') 2024-25 Grants Program. Established in 2024, the Centre is a national platform that supports initiatives aimed at strengthening Australian business, education, cultural and community connections with ASEAN Member States and, where appropriate, Timor-Leste.

These guidelines contain information on the Centre's 2024-25 Grants Program, including:

- the purpose of the grant program/grant opportunity
- the eligibility and assessment criteria
- how grant applications are considered and selected
- how grantees are notified and receive grant payments
- how grantees will be monitored and evaluated
- responsibilities and expectations in relation to the opportunity.

About the Grants Program

The Centre, subject to ongoing budget, will provide grants each year to develop, promote and strengthen understanding and engagement between Australia and Southeast Asia (encompassing ASEAN Member States and Timor-Leste) in support of Australia's national interests.

The Centre will support the implementation of the ASEAN-Australia Comprehensive Strategic Partnership and will work with ASEAN to ensure alignment with ASEAN priorities, including the ASEAN Outlook on the Indo-Pacific.

The Centre will build on the Australian Government's ongoing commitment to deepen engagement with Southeast Asia and will implement recommendations from Invested: Australia's Southeast Asia Economic Strategy to 2040.

To deliver on its objectives, the Centre will focus its work on four strategic pillars:

- Southeast Asia literacy
- Economic linkages
- Education
- Cultural connections.

The priority areas for the Centre's Grants will likely change from year-to-year. For the 2024-25 grants opportunity, the Centre welcomes applications in line with its objectives and strategic pillars in the following three priority areas:

1. Creative industry-focused exchange initiatives (in music, performing arts, design and visual arts, fashion, screen, digital games, and writing sectors) to facilitate further collaboration between creative talent in Australia and Southeast Asia, including but not limited to:

- - export, trade and investment opportunities
 - professional and creative exchanges and collaborations
 - partnerships
 - internships
 - skills sharing.

Initiatives can be in one or more of the sectors mentioned above. Cross-sectoral initiatives are also welcomed.

1. Cultural initiatives focused on creating market development opportunities to drive two-way trade, tourism, and business, and create cross-cultural connections between Australian and Southeast Asian institutions and organisations including but not limited to:

- - export, trade and investment opportunities
 - professional, creative, and cultural exchanges and collaborations
 - partnerships
 - residencies and internships
 - skills sharing.

Initiatives focused upon promoting the rich cultural heritage of Indigenous Australians, involving Indigenous Australian participants and/or Australian participants with Southeast Asian heritage will be favourably considered.

1. Grants for Australian researchers or institutions to undertake projects focused on practical efforts to strengthen Southeast Asia literacy in Australian business, government, the education and training system, and the community. Projects with a commercialisation objective and/or with industry partner involvement will be favourably considered. Joint projects with Southeast Asian partners may also be considered. The intended outcomes of the grant opportunity are:

- - increased business, trade, tourism and investment between Australia and ASEAN and Timor-Leste
 - deepened mutual understanding, capability and increased Southeast Asia literacy in Australian business, government, the education and training system, and the community.
 - increased cross-cultural connections between Australian and Southeast Asian cultural institutions, business, organisations and the community
 - increased, positive, awareness of ASEAN-Australia relations among Australian and Southeast Asian audiences.

For all priority areas

- projects that are multi-country in scope or strengthen regional responses to the objectives will be favourably considered but bilateral initiatives are also welcome to apply
- applications with Southeast Asian partners are strongly encouraged
- applications from Indigenous Australians and Indigenous Australian-led organisations are strongly encouraged
- women and women-led businesses and organisations are strongly encouraged to apply
- applicants with diverse abilities are welcomed.

The Centre administers the Grants program according to the Commonwealth Grants Rules and Guidelines (CGRGs)[1].

Eligible grant activities

To be eligible your proposed grant activities:

- must be consistent with the objectives and intended outcomes as outlined in Section 2 'About the Grant Program' (above)
- include eligible activities and eligible expenditure.

Eligible activities must directly relate to the grant project and can include, but are not limited to:

- industry dialogues (virtual or in person)
- trade delegations
- virtual or real tours and exhibitions
- major events, performances and forums
- conferences and workshops
- exchanges, internships, fellowships and secondments of personnel between Australia, ASEAN Member States and/or Timor-Leste
- communication activities
- market research
- community engagement
- investment policy talks
- research and development projects and other research-related activities that align with priority area 3 in Section 2.1, and

Eligible expenditure

You can only spend the grant on eligible expenditure directly related to the delivery of eligible activities.

Eligible expenditure items include:

- reasonable air (economy class), land or sea travel costs and accommodation (up to four star) including meals and travel allowances, with the requirement to demonstrate the best value-for-money principles (refer to ATO Tax Determination - reasonable travel and overtime meal allowance expense amounts for guidance)
- interpretation and translation
- communications, advertising and promotion, graphic design, photography
- publications and printed material
- event and production costs (including freight and artists' fees)
- venue hire and catering
- research-related activities
- labour costs of employees you directly employ to deliver the core elements of the grant project (but not ongoing salaries/wages), or
- other activities determined as eligible by the Program Delegate.

If your application is successful, we may ask you to verify project costs that you provided in your application. You may need to provide evidence such as quotes for major costs.

Not all expenditure on your grant activity may be eligible for grant funding. The Program Delegate makes the final decision on what is eligible expenditure and may give additional guidance on eligible expenditure if required.

You must incur the expenditure on your grant activities between the start date and end or completion date for your grant agreement for it to be eligible.

If you receive Commonwealth government funding from another source, you must detail this in your application.

For activities delivered in Australia, applicants are encouraged to consider the use of an Indigenous supplier, if they intend to subcontract any of the services above. A directory of registered Indigenous businesses is available on the Supply Nation website.

What the grant money cannot be used for

You cannot use the grant for the following activities:

- purchase of land
- ongoing salaries/wages
- major capital expenditure
- the covering of retrospective costs
- costs incurred in the preparation of a grant application or related documentation
- subsidy of general ongoing administration of an organisation such as electricity, phone and rent honorariums, or administrative charges levied by the applicant's organisation
- major construction/capital works
- activities for which other Commonwealth, state, territory or local government bodies have primary responsibility, and or
- completed projects.

- how your grant will support the national interest in your chosen area.

*

Word count:

Must be no more than 500 words

Criterion 3 (20%): How effective and efficient will the applicant be in delivering the grant?

You should demonstrate this through:

- previous track record of achievement and the diversity of skills, experience and backgrounds your team brings to the project, effective governance and risk management frameworks
- capacity to demonstrate success through measurable qualitative and quantitative data
- proposed project partners in Australia and/or ASEAN Member States and Timor Leste.

*

Word count:

Must be no more than 500 words

Criterion 4 (20%): How will the activity deliver enduring and sustainable outcomes beyond the funding period?

You should demonstrate this through:

- scenario planning (“what if?”) beyond the life of the grant agreement
- ability to deliver enduring value beyond the grant cycle, such as ability to forge durable institutional linkages, commercial outcomes or people-to-people links over an extended period of time

*

Word count:

Must be no more than 500 words

Criterion 5 (20%): How well you will maximise the reach and impact of the funding?
